and Industry, Bureau
of PENNSAFE

- Protect Employees
- Protect Your Business
- Qualify for a 5% Discount on Your Workers Compensation

HACC Institute for Entrepreneurial Studies includes both credit and professional development programs intended to educate people of all ages who are interested in starting and growing a business. HACC allows an individual to choose the courses and the program that best fit his/her educational needs: one-to-one counseling, professional development seminars and workshops or credit Entrepreneurial Leadership programs.

This training is designed for businesses of four or more employees who are interested in starting a workplace safety committee, or who currently have a workplace safety committee. It meets a requirement of the Commonwealth's Workplace Safety Committee Discount Program leading to a 5% discount on companies' workers' compensation insurance premiums. The training will be conducted by staff from The Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry, Bureau of PENNSAFE.

PENNSAFE's Qualified Accident and Illness Prevention Service Providers are responsible for certification and recertification training. The training for committees consists of three topic areas:

Safety Committee Dynamics | Hazard Identification | Incident Investigation
